Trainmaster Injured.
(By Associated Press.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., Feb. 11.—John Goodykantz, of Roanoke, trainmaster of the Norfolk division of the Norfolk & Western railroad, was probably fatally injured late today, when a blast went off prematurely as a work train, on which he was riding, was passing. He sustained a compound depressed fracture of the skull, among other injuries. He will be operated upon here tonight.

Dixie Returns to Roads.

The United States cruiser Dixie, which was in the Philadelphia navy yard, returned to Hampton Roads yesterday and will go to the Portsmouth navy yard to undergo repairs.
It is said that an outbreak of black diphtheria at the Philadelphia yard changed the plans of the Dixie.

AWFUL BURNING ITCH
CURED IN A DAY

"In the middle of the night of March 30th I woke up with a burning itch in my two hands and I felt as if I could pull them apart. In the morning the itching had got to my chest and during that day it spread all over my body. I was red and raw from the top of my head to the soles of my feet and I was in continual agony from the itching. I could neither lie down nor sit up. I happened to see about Cuticura Remedies and I thought I would give them a trial. I took a good bath with the Cuticura Soap and used the Cuticura Ointment. I put it on from my head down to my feet and then went to bed. On the first of April I felt like a new man.
The itching was almost gone. I continued with the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and during that day the itching completely left me. Frank Gladley, 325 East 43rd Street, New York City, Apr. 27, 1909." Cuticura Remedies

Consul Killed by Woman.
(By Associated Press.)

ALGERS, Feb. 11.—L. Daebot, the Bohrian consul here, was shot and killed today by his mistress as he was entering an automobile. Revenge was the motive.

As in Laundries.

A California woman in training a new Chinese servant to wait on the door had her daughter ring the bell and present her card. Next afternoon a friend called and handed her card to the Celestial, who pulled out of his sleeve the card the daughter of the house had presented the afternoon before and carefully compared the two.
"Tickee no matchee," he exclaimed, handing back the visitor's card. "No can come in."—Success Magazine.

"The white ones, please."
There was silence until the last piece had disappeared.
"They were all pink at first, Aunt," replied Constance.—From Success

FISHERMEN FORM
BENEFIT ASSOCIATION

Fox Hill People Organize Insurance Company—Other News Notes of Interest.

(Special to Daily Press.)

FOX HILL, VA., Feb. 11.—The fishermen of Fox Hill and vicinity met a few nights ago and organized the Fishermen's Insurance Company, which is to be a protective association for the men who make their living from the waters of Chesapeake bay.
The officers for the first year are:
President—G. I. Johnson.
Secretary—David Johnson.
Treasurer—H. L. Horton.

The association will meet tonight to adopt the constitution and by-laws and will also petition the State Corporation Commission for a charter of incorporation.

Mr. H. L. Gordon, Jr., a well known young man of this town, has been appointed postmaster at Rip Raps and will succeed in that office, Mr. J. J.
Routten.

The Misses Eunice and Inez Johnson, who have been visiting in Hampton for several weeks, have returned home.

Mr. James Montien is quite ill in his home with an attack of the grip.

Mrs. Esther Craddock, of Charles City county, is the guest of Miss Sue Wyatt.

Mrs. Laura Mason, who has been undergoing treatment for tonsillitis by Dr. W. P. Isley, is improving.

Mrs. George Johnson, Sr., is among the Fox Hill folk now down with the grip.

Messrs. R. E. Johnson, Cecil Holston and Moses Routten, merchants of this town, spent Thursday hunting black duck in Potomac creek. The nimrods had a pleasant day's outing and were rewarded with several fine specimens of the "black."

Rey. Samuel Dunville has as his guest, his son, Mr. R. Dunville.

The delegation of fishermen from Fox Hill, who went to Richmond to oppose the Lesner crab and fish measure, are much elated over the success of their trip. The framers of the measure conceded the points to which the fishermen objected.

WHAT'S THE USE?

We work and scrape and save and pinch
To get upon some coin a pinch.
And flourish like the man next door.
Although we vote that man a bore And wonder why the chump's alive, Still to outdo him hard we strive, Then when we get our little store We wish that we could make it more.

By day we gather up our pile, By night we strive a claim to file Upon some half-suspected hoard On which, as yet, no man has scored.
Toward money all our labors bend—
And all to what unworthy end?
Do we enjoy it? Not a bit We've shriveled till the joys don't fit.

We pinch a dollar into bits Ere it upon its errand flits; Till those around about us sigh—Then maybe we curl up and die.
So what's the use? Let others seek To save a fortune week by week.
Why should we struggle to that end When we can borrow from a friend?

FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION Queen Street Brick Store Business Property.

I shall sell to the highest bidder in front of the Court House on Saturday, March 5, 1910, at 12 O'clock noon my business property which consists of Two Brick Store Buildings on the north side of Queen street in the City of Hampton, Va.; said lot fronts 62 feet on Queen street and runs back 150 and 155 feet. This sale also includes the street on the west side of the store property that leads from Queen street to Franklin street.

The three-story brick building is 25x80 and the second and third floors are fitted up for residence or hotel purposes, and with modern conveniences. The two-story brick building is 30x50, and the second floor is fitted up with modern conveniences for residence purposes. At reasonable rents this property would bring $1,400 per year. The property as it stands cost the owner $16,000. Each store will be put up separately, then the property will be put up as a whole and should the bid as a whole be more than the total of the bids separately, then the property will be sold as a whole. Reasonable terms can be arranged. THOMAS HAR-MOND, Owner.

When You Sign a Bond

As surety for a friend, you injure your credit. Bankers, Credit Men and Commercial Agencies take this into consideration when determining your financial standing.

Moreover, you JEOPARDIZE YOUR ESTATE. Losses on bonds invariably occur from unexpected sources, and frequently long after the bonds are signed. The provision that a man has made for his family during his entire lifetime is often wiped out after his death by a loss on a bond signed by him.
